The Great Church Floors Refinishing Project

See St. Paul's Post, summer issue for details

Tuesday July 3: work on Phase II will begin. The Hall will be emptied of everything on the floor, except the bookcases. (by volunteers)

Friday July 6:, existing carpets in the church will be professionally removed.

Sunday, July 8: after the 10:30 service on the church will be totally stripped of all chairs and pews, all hangings, all brass, everything! (by volunteers)

Monday, July 9: hardwood sanding/ buffing and refinishing of both church and hall will begin. (by professionals)

Church and Hall will both be "out of bounds" for the entire week

Sunday July 15 & Sunday July 22: Regular 8:30 a.m. service will be held in the Hall (basement) and the 10:30 service will be held outdoors or in the Hall, if wet.

*WARNING – The smell of fumes from drying varathane is very likely in the Hall on the 15th – WARNING ****

Monday July 23: carpeting installation (by professionals) begins in the church for 2-3 days. After completion of the carpeting, the church will be "put back together" (by volunteers).
