Celebrating Black History Month At our February 10th church services, Almonte-based photographer, Monique Renaud, will give us a sneak peek into the inspiration behind her breathtaking photo exhibit, Portrait of an African Woman, which will be displayed at the Centre for Creative Living starting February 8 and will run throughout the remainder of Black History Month. The exhibit and fundraiser for Woman's Global Engagement (FEM – Femmes Engagement Mondial) are the fruits of Monique's incredible journey to Senegal two years ago, where she volunteered at a bed and breakfast school for Senegalese women aged 16 to 25 who are striving to become entrepreneurs. Come and meet Monique and view her exhibit, which tells a soulful story of dreams, vision, overcoming struggles and accomplishments by using one's own unique gifts.

Christmas Dishes Please pick up your dishes from the Christmas Dinner. They can be found in a Rubbermaid container in the church hall. Thank you!
