COMING UP...

MARY MAGDALENE COURSE For the next six weeks, the Mary Magdalene Course is meeting on Mondays at the home of Bill and Jacquie Fehlner, at 467 Honeybourne Street, Almonte. Prayer itself begins at 8:30 a.m. The course runs from 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. The first two audio sessions are available from Sue Evans for anyone who would like to catch up and attend: 613-721-0033 or evanssue@rogers.com

MONTHLY FRIENDSHIP LUNCHEON is at 12:00 noon on Tuesday, February 5th in the social hall at the United Church. Our friends and neighbours from Holy Name of Mary Church will be supplying the homemade desserts. Sponsored by the churches in Almonte, the cost of lunch remains $5 for soup, sandwiches and dessert.

OPEN TABLE is this Wednesday, Feb. 6th. Our topic is: How do we as a church create a space that is inclusive of and open to diversity -- specially to members of the LGBTQ community? Soup is served at 6:30 p.m. Everyone is welcomed.

CELEBRATING BLACK HISTORY MONTH At our February 10th church services, Almonte-based photographer, Monique Renaud, will give us a sneak peek into the inspiration behind her breathtaking photo exhibit, Portrait of an African Woman, which will be displayed at the Centre for Creative Living starting February 8 and will run throughout the remainder of Black History Month. The exhibit and fundraiser for Woman's Global Engagement (FEM – Femmes Engagement Mondial) are the fruits of Monique's incredible journey to Senegal two years ago, where she volunteered at a bed and breakfast school for Senegalese women aged 16 to 25 who are striving to become entrepreneurs. Come and meet Monique and view her exhibit, which tells a soulful story of dreams, vision, overcoming struggles and accomplishments by using one's own unique gifts. You will be able to make a donation to support Women's Global Movement through St. Paul's Anglican Church if you write a cheque to the church and put 'Senegal' on the subject line.

CURSILLO MOVEMENT PRAYER & PRAISE

The Ottawa Anglican Cursillo Movement will be hosting a Prayer & Praise (Ultreya) Church Service here at St. Paul's on Sunday, February 24th from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. Come enjoy music, faith and community. Everyone Welcome!
